Perhaps its just as well that during ones youth, that is to say "one's immaturity" one really does not know just how well off one is.

What was so wonderful about these 4 family members? Very simple — They individually and collectively, paid a great deal of attention to me.

It was attention that was consistent, it was constant & 99% of the time it was gentle, and it was dependable. Only in my 51 years of marriage to Doris have I felt anything with which it compares.

P.S. That is how I tried to raise our son. Did I succeed? (Quinn Lake?)
