DATA OBTAINED FROM: Family records and letters. Daniel S. McNeill left home at the age of 14 to work his way down the East Coast of the US on boats. His photograph taken in New York City, shows a well dressed, confident young man. He moved to Missouri in the 1860's where he married Sarah E. McFarland. They left Warrensburg, Mo. by wagon train for Texas, circa 1871-2. In the wagon train with them was John Bell, Bob Houx (a cousin of Uncle Jake Houx) and Johnny McNeill (no relation). They settled in Palo Pinto County, Texas and never lived anywhere else. He was elected Justice of the Peace in 1905. The story is told in the family that when Daniel S. received word from New Brunswick, Canada that his older brother, Hugh<sup>2</sup>, had passed away on January 6, 1929, Daniel S., age 83, just walked into his bedroom to lie down and never got up again. He said that he felt that he simply had lived long enough. He had kept in close touch with his brothers and sisters by mail and had over the years made several trips to the East to visit them.
