

Walter Scott McNabb was born 1 Dec. 1875 or 5 Dec. 1874, the records vary, in Desdemonia, Eastland County, Texas. He died Sept. 4, 1936 in an automobile accident near Hereford, Texas. Walter Scott graduated from Eastland Academy, now Hardin Simmons University in Abilene, Texas. In 1895-96 he worked for his uncle, Walter Scott's mother's older sister's husband, George Yoakum in Greer County, Oklahoma. Walter Scott returned to Caddo, Palo Pinto County, Texas to marry Birtie Sophia McNeill, born 1879 in Palo Pinto County. Mother Mc as she later was called, died Nov. 23, 1969 in Spearman, Hansford County, Texas. She and her husband, Walter Scott McNabb, are buried in Old Hansford Cemetery, near the Palo Duro Creek in Hansford County, Texas.

After their marriage Dec. 15, 1896, Walter & Birtie went to Greer County, Okla. where Walter continued to work for George Yoakum and also filed on land in his own name. It was on this land on Jan. 22 1898 that Warren Gilbert McNabb was born. He died in Albuquerque, New Mexico Sept 4, 1975. Warren was a overseas combat veteran of WWI. Returning to Hansford, Texas after occupation duty in Germany, Warren married Ruth Prutsman of Spearman, Hansford County County, Texas on May 18, 1930 in Clayton, New Mexico. They had two children Beverly Nan born 9 January 1932, and Warren Neil born 7 January 1934, both born in Spearman, Hansford Cty., Texas.

Sometime during the period 1898-1900, Walter Scott filed on or purchased land in Hansford County, Texas. However, the family did not move to Hansford Cty. until a few months after the birth of their daughter Viola Craig McNabb, born Feb. 12, 1900, on the family farm in Stephens County, Texas.

Walter Scott McNabb was County and District Court Clerk in Hansford Cty., Texas from 1906-1912. In 1917 he organized and was President of the First State Bank, Hansford County, Texas later moved 7 miles to Spearman, Texas when the railroad came through Hansford County circa 1920. He sold his controlling interest in the Bank in 1928 and continued in the Real Estate business, The McNABB Land Co., that he had established in 1902 in Hansford County.

Birtie Sophia(McNeill) McNabb had 2 brothers and 2 sisters. Sister Rose Ella married a Ramsey and was the mother of Ralph Ramsey of Ranger, Texas, who had two sons. Sister Anne Maude married a Jones. Brother Robert McNeill married Emma Elizabeth Littlepage and had four children James Robert; Golda, who married a Rumfield; Opal Laverne who married 1st M. Foreman and 2nd Tom Spears and had a daughter by each one; and Jack who married Jessie Hughes.
