

Fifthly I desire My Wagon and Farming utensils to Be for those of my Sons Who live on my farm Sixthly I desire that My Daughter Mada Peoples Receive the Sum of Twenty dollars -

Seventhly I desire that My daughter Jane Brown Receive the Sum of Twenty dollars -

Eighthly if after the above Provisions is Complied With if it appear that they is Circumstant of Property let it be Equally divided among my daughters after the Execution of Ten dollars to my ten sons that is to My son Absalom McNabb one dollar to My son Nathaniel McNabb one dollar to My son James McNabb one dollar to my son David McNabb one dollar to my son Andrew McNabb one dollar to my son William McNabb one dollar to my son Matthew McNabb one dollar to my son Isaac McNabb one dollar to my son Ulven McNabb one dollar to my son Taylor McNabb one dollar and I constitute my Sons, Nathaniel McNabb William McNabb and Taylor McNabb, Executors of this My Last Will and Testament.

Revoking and making Void all others Wills and Testaments made by me Confirming and Establishing this one no other My last Will and desire — and being unable to sign his name hath authorized and it to be signed and acknowledged in the Presence of us his Wm Peoples I

David McNabb. Clas

Aaron McInturff
Henson ^{his} Parry wrote