

I have & bequeath to my beloved son Isaac Taylor the just & full sum of five shillings starting currency which they
I have & bequeath to my beloved son David McCall.

The just & full sum of five shillings starting currency to him & his Mary & his & the quality of my beloved son Andrew Taylor & his wife's <sup>and Mary's</sup> ~~the~~ stock by the will of David's father. now on to be equally divided in quantity and quality between my son Andrew & his wife & his David & by nature of my many property as my Andrew the father of David. My ~~David's~~ <sup>Andrew</sup> now decided to as my son Andrew & Mary have the father bond of the stock forming currency
- having line respecting the bond of my son which I have decided the National like my wife not referring to the improvement that my son Andrew now has made when David & Anne to be divided the whole between the land & referred to the as David not Andrew & his wife & his as the old land to be divided equally then in quantity & quality as if the land then was in place I have & bequeath to my beloved son Andrew & his wife & his David the just & full sum of five shillings starting currency which they
I have & bequeath to my beloved son David McCall.