Records; Mormon Church Archives, Salt Lake City; Oct 1981, British

Isles, Scotland, page 800,002; Batch 7102110; Serial Sheet 20. The 1851

Saint John County, New Brunswick, Canada Census Vol III (L-Z) Saint

John Regional Library R 312.9715 v. 2-c. 1, shows McNeill p. 33 Simonds E.,

Hugh with wife, Sophia, and family listed by name and age.

Black River lore has it that Sophia carried Hugh² the 20 miles to town to have him baptised and then carried him home again. Baptism was probably at St. Peters. Hugh was an early farmer. According to the Saint John

"Globe" Hugh was the first settler to bring in horses and wagons to the area, to replace the oxen then in use. From "Globe" newspaper:

"Hugh and Sophia Boyle McNeill married 8 August 1837

Hugh age 34 Sophia age 20 Witnesses: Michael Friel, Peter Gilligan

and Miss Ann Dally"

Hugh had a brother Malcolm McNeill who married Catherine Cameron, probably a relative of Hugh's wife, Christy Cameron. On February 9, 1827, Malcolm & Catherine McNeill christened their son, Hugh. This was some two years after Hugh had arrived in Canada.
