No. 1.

[Council to Worcester Committee.]

To the Committee of Observation for Worcester County.

Gent<sup>r</sup>

The Bearer hereof Mr John Galloway is with some other Gentlemen in partnership about setting up & carrying on a Salt Work under the encouragement of the Last Convention, He is in great measure unacquainted in your County, and as the work will be of the Greatest Public utility, we take the liberty of recommending him to your notice and countenance, and shall be much obliged to you for any assistance you may give him, or any Favors you will be pleased to confer upon him.

[Purviance to Council.]

In Comm<sup>ee</sup> Baltimore 27. May 1776.

Gentlemen. Capt<sup>r</sup> John Sterrets Company of Militia being appointed an Independent Company, and Cap<sup>t</sup> George Wells comp<sup>y</sup> consisting chiefly of ship carpenters employed in working on the continental frigate having petitioned to be formed into an artillery Comp<sup>y</sup> which we presume will be granted. We think proper to add to the Baltimore Town Battalion, Capt<sup>r</sup> Thomas Rutters and Capt<sup>r</sup> Fred<sup>k</sup> Deams's companys of Militia as the most convenient to join the same, and their situation is such that they cannot with propriety join any other Battalion.

By order of the Comm<sup>ee</sup>

ZACHARIAH McCUBBINS

Born in Baltimore Co.
Md. 1752. Died in Claiborne
Co. Tenn. 1834. William & Elinor McCubbin were his parents.
Zachariah McCubbin and Sarah Lane were married in Pittsylvania Co. Va. Dec. 1772

Nathaniel Taylor McNabb, son of David McNabb, Sr. & Elizabeth Taylor McNabb, and grandson of Baptist McNabb & Kathren his wife, married Ellender McCubbin, dau of Capt. Zachariah McCubbin & his wife, Sarah Lane McCubbin, dau of John Fuller Lane. Nathaniel and Ellender married on January 20, 1805 in Carter Co. Tenn. Among their children was, James Pinckney McNabb b. 9 Feb 1814, who married Easter Flenniken De Armand a full-blood Cherokee girl in Cleveland Co. Tenn on 13 November 1836. Their son was Nathaniel A McNabb, father of Walter Scott McNabb, grandfather of Viola Craig McNabb wife of Solomon Johnson Davidson & mother of Walter Craig Davidson.

Family of Wife of Nathaniel Taylor McNabb,
Eleanor McCubbin

MACCUBBIN

Immigrant John McCubbin born ca 1640 in Scotland; will dated 21 Sept 1685, will proved 31 July 1686 the year of his death in Anne Arundell Co., Maryland. John<sup>1</sup> arrived in Anne Arundell in 1659, where in 1665, he married a daughter of Samuel Howard. She died in ca 1670, at the birth of their third child and only dau, Elizabeth, which was probably the mother's name, which is verifiably unknown. ♦
John's other children by his first wife, the Howard girl, were John<sup>2</sup> and Samuel.

John<sup>2</sup> McCubbin was born in Anne Arundell Co., Md. prior to 1677, ca 1666, and died there 2 Dec 1736. He<sup>2</sup> married Ann Howard (according to the Abridged Compendium) and they had 9 children, one of whom was William, Sr., the 2nd son and 4th child, who was born in Anne Arundell, Md. ca 1695 and who married Nellie Griffith.

Wm. Sr., and Nellie Griffith had a son, William Jr., who, ca 1750, married Eleanor Conley. Wm. Jr. and Eleanor, before the Revolutionary War, moved from Baltimore Co. Md. to Pittsylvania Co., Virginia, where they settled on Rutledge Creek of the Dan River.

William McCubbin Jr. & Eleanor Conley McCubbin had a son born in Baltimore Co. Md in 1752, whom they named Zachariah. Zachariah McCubbin married Sarah Lane in Pittsylvania Co., Virginia in 1772. Sarah Lane was the dau of John Fuller Lane and his wife Elizabeth Cloud, dau of Isaac Cloud. Sarah Lane McCubbin was born in Lunenburg Co. Virginia in 1754. Zachariah McCubbin was a Captain in the Town Battalion, Annapolis, Md during the Revolutionary War.

Zachariah McCubbin and his wife Sarah Lane McCubbin had 9 children. The 6th child and 3rd dau was Ellender (Eleanor). Ellender McCubbin married Nathaniel Taylor McNabb in 1805 in Carter Co., Tenn. After the Rev War, Zachariah and Sarah McCubbin moved to Claiborne Co., Tenn where he died in 1834 and is buried in the Old Irish Cemetery just outside of Tazewell, Tenn. (Possibly both are buried there.)

See Family Group Sheet for Nathaniel Taylor McNabb and Ellender McCubbin. Nathaniel Taylor McNabb was son of David McNabb, grandson of Baptist McNabb and greatgrandson of William McNabb, the Immigrant from Scotland, who owned land in Augusta Co., Virginia in 1749 before moving to the Watauga area of Washington Co./Carter Co. North Carolina/Tenn where he died, ca 1789.

Walter Craig Davidson's lineage from Revolutionary War Patriots, includes:

1. Zachariah McCubbin who married Sarah Lane.
2. John Fuller Lane who married Elizabeth Cloud.
3. Andrew Taylor, Sr. who married Elizabeth Wilson.
4. Isaac Cloud from Henry Co. Va. name of wife is unknown.
5. Baptist McNabb who married Katrin or Katherine ???.
6. David McNabb who married Elizabeth Taylor.

Lineage also includes:

William Craig Davidson, son of Walter Craig Davidson & Doris Louise Buckner Davidson. Tyler Craig Davidson and Tara Louise Davidson, children of William Craig Davidson. and grandchildren of Walter Craig Davidson and Doris Louise Davidson.

♦ Research indicates that her name was Deborah.

See Section II for McCubbin, Lane, Cloud and Taylor Lineage & documentation.

CAPTAIN DAVID McNABB

Captain David McNabb's widow, Elizabeth McNabb, applied for revolutionary pension, based on his service, while she lived in Meigs County, Tennessee, in 1837, when she was 79 years of age. She died June 20, 1847 <sup>bear in MATT</sup> ~~born in MATT~~ <sup>McNabb</sup> David McNabb entered the service while living in Washington County, North Carolina, in the section which became Carter County, Tenn. He raised a company of militia in Washington County, in June, 1780, and was elected captain. He served in two tours one under Colonel Robinson and one under Colonel John Sevier and was engaged against the Indians. He assisted in the destruction of their towns. He served another tour of three months in 1781 under Colonel John Sevier during which his company marched into South Carolina and assisted in capturing a number of British soldiers. Captain McNabb returned to Washington County and continued to reside there until his death, May 3, 1826.

He married in the year 1778, Elizabeth Taylor. They were married by "Parson Graham in the Stone Meeting House," in Augusta County, Virginia. They moved to Washington County to reside. She stated that her brother, Andrew Taylor, moved from Augusta County, to Washington County and resided near them. Andrew Taylor was 76 years of age in 1837 when he resided in Washington County.

Note:- Captain McNabb's company marched to King's Mountain following the other Mountain men by twenty-four hours, it is said, and reached the site of the battle one hour after it was ended. Andrew Taylor, Elizabeth Taylor McNabb's brother, was a member of the well known Taylor family of Washington County. His father was Isaac Taylor. For this family see the Taylor Family of Tennessee, Lookout Publishing Company.

Elizabeth Taylor's father was Andrew Taylor, Sr. her brother was Andrew Jr.
